

Rogers "Roge" Stinson, Jr.

Rogers Stinson joined Logistics Associates in September 2015, following a distinguished twenty-year military career in the United States Army as a senior officer and Army Aviator, flying CH-47 "Chinook" helicopters. His military assignments and combat tours included the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), Fort Campbell, Kentucky; 17th Aviation Brigade, Camp Humphreys, South Korea; 3d Infantry Division (Mechanized), Fort Stewart, Georgia and Camp Striker, Iraq; Army Human Resources Command, Alexandria, Virginia; and the Army and Joint Staffs (Pentagon), Washington, District of Columbia.

Throughout his military career, Rogers led large diverse organizations, comprised of a myriad of technical specialties. Towards the end of his military career while stationed in the Washington, D.C. area, he served on various executive-level Government and interagency staff committees, representing both Department of the Army and Department of Defense equities covering a broad array of global reaching matters. Roge's executive leadership experience and talent for building lasting relationship made him the right fit as Chief Operating Officer and Vice President for Human Resources.

Rogers holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Chemistry from Furman University and a Master of Arts degree in Human Resource Management from Webster University. He is an experienced photographer and enjoys traveling abroad. Rogers is married to Chris Stinson, and together they have two beautiful children, Saige and "Little" Roge, ages 12 and 10.
